Cody, you've been the best friend anyone could as for in these 16 and a half years. Calling you and your mom picking up all the time, I'll miss that. I know how much you love her and how you took care of her alone. You did wonderful by her and you should have no regrets. I could only hope that when the time comes I am sick, someone will love me as much as you do your ma, and that I'll be taken care of as good as you took care of her. Love you so very much and you know I'm always going to be here for you <3

I can't help but to express my feelings here, too Mom. I don't feel any resentment or hard feelings. I've always felt like you did the best you knew how to do. I'm not angry that I didn't have my mom in my life. I'm angry because I feel like you felt wronged somehow. I didn't wrong you mom. It wasn't my fault. Whatever happened in your life wasn't my responsibility. I wonder how you went from a smiling HS Grad to the woman you became. .....But..... I am at peace with it. You did the best you could. You did what you felt was right. I DO love you. And I hope you find some kind of happiness wherever you are.
