“ Quita and Stan I can't say I understand the pain you feel about the loss of your daughter but I can try to help you with the healing process with the help from above. God called my little cousin home without warning or reason but he makes no mistakes and I know she is watching over you with her tiny wings in heaven. So don't let your heart be troubled because she is in the best hands she could ever be in. I love you and I am here for you whenever you need me day or night, with so much love your big cousin - Monica Atlas##imported-begin##Monica Atlas##imported-end##
