

Amanda Fay Green

July 16, 1949 - April 7, 2016

Amanda Fay Green, 66, went home to be with the King on Thursday, April 7, 2016! She was born on July 16, 1949 to the union of Ervin & Mary Helen (Walker) Green in Muskegon, Michigan. Amanda graduated from Muskegon Public Schools & attended Muskegon Community College & Western Michigan University. After years of work & service, she retired from the Kalamazoo Public Library.

Amanda grew up at Queen Esther Baptist Church in Muskegon. Known as the “Oracle”, she served many years at Christian Life Center/Stones Church under the leadership of Pastor Joel & Yvonne Brooks and Pastor Ervin & Joyce Armstrong. Amanda also served as a volunteer with World Renew, the relief & development arm of the Christian Reformed Church. As prayer coordinator, Amanda prayed for an event that hosted staff & partners from over 37 countries. She made herself available to faithfully pray for staff, their families, volunteers, & constituency every Friday from 9-11 AM. She became known as a prayer warrior who had a special relationship with God & everyone was drawn to her presence.

Amanda is the founder of DIVA Ministries & Nana’s Network. Both ministries were born out of her desire to see women know their value & identity in Christ.

Amanda was preceded in death by her parents Mary Helen Green and Ervin (Leola) Green.

Amanda Fay Green leaves a legacy and will be missed by her children: Sheba Green & Rahni (Ashanti) Bryant of Grand Rapids, MI; three grandchildren- Mackenzie Amanda, Bailey Aisha, & Benjamin Michael; three sisters- Brenda (Roger) Weathers of Lansing, MI; Delma (Jerome) Washington of Albion, MI; Gloretta Green of Muskegon, MI; 5 nephews- Marshall, Neil, Andre, Jesse, Jerome Jr.; 4 nieces- Mia, Iva, Alice, Royce; a host of relatives, friends, spiritual brothers and sisters, and spiritual children.

“ To Brenda, Delma, and Gloretta,
I am so very sorry for the loss of your precious sister, and our childhood friend, Amanda (Fay, as she was affectionately known to us). Your mother, Helen, and our mother, Annie Belle, were very dear friends and we all played together at your house and our house many times growing up. I still remember all of you fondly. Please know that our prayers are with you all during this sad time. I am so glad that Fay loved the Lord and will be with Him in Eternity. May the Love of Jesus Christ comfort you as you remember her in the days, weeks, and months ahead.
With Deepest Sympathy, The Miller Family

“ What a beautiful spirit, permitted to return to her Heavenly Father, although we miss her and the pain is real, she lived and realized the purpose of being a Daughter of Destiny. She gave us a glimpse of what it meant to live in His presence at all times and enjoy who you are. WOW "To God be the Glory" Celeste from Lansing, MI

“ Amanda the Apostle, no longer captive to the world's forms or structures. One who cast the light of Gods love to others. She has now passed into the delight of our Heavenly Father and received her real time of Spiritual Refreshing, rest, and renewal. God's blessings and comfort to Sheba, Rahni, and family.
