

Amy Ammolean Gordon

March 1, 1937 - April 2, 2014

Amy Ammolean Gordon was born March 1, 1937 in Hope, Arkansas. When her parents came to Kalamazoo, MI in 1946, Amy showed an incredible amount of intelligence and aptitude in school. This resulted in her graduating from Kalamazoo Central High School in 1954 at the age of 16. She later went on to Western Michigan University, and after 2 years of study there, she met and married George Gordon.

Amy worked various office jobs and was very adept at shorthand and banking keypunch. She later was employed at General Motors, where she found she could do more of God's work, working out on the floor of the plant rather than in the office. She was employed at GM until 1999, when she retired.

Amy accepted the Lord at an early age. She attended the Open Door Church Of God In Christ, in Kalamazoo. She later became a faithful member of the Greater Faith Fellowship Church Of God In Christ.

Amy enjoyed family. She was especially fond of her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She really enjoyed reading and studying the Bible, listening to gospel music and watching the television evangelists. Yes--she truly loved the LORD!

Amy was preceded in death by her parents; Pastor Prinest Carter and Mother

Thelma Carter; son Darwin E. Gordon; and grandson, Corey D. Morris.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her sons: Larry, Bruce and Kelly Gordon all of Kalamazoo, MI; Eric (Thea) Gordon of Grand Prairie, TX; two special sons, Bart and Doug Stafford both of Battle Creek, MI; 12 grandchildren; 8 great-grandchildren; one uncle, James Mayweather of Toledo, OH; and a host of loving cousins, a wonderfully devoted church family and a host of special friends.
