To the Daniels family. Many years have gone since we have seen each other or had an opportunity to say hello. Calvin, it was a pleasure to know you and your entire family. May your presence and spirit be with our Lord and Savior. You made an impact on this life journey not only for your family, but your friends, love ones and community. Rest in the presence of God, our Lord and Savior.

“ Calvin Daniel you will truly be missed by our family. There are too many memories, but he was full of life with jokes all the time, family man loved the children and spending time with family. Danny and our family just spent time with you and your family you ordered pizza for the kids and Chinese for the adults. We had such a great time and talked with your mother and sisters and as always invite for Thanksgiving the entire family. We know you are good no worries at all. Until we meet again served your purpose here. Job well done.
