“ I have known Celia, since we were kids, she lived down the street from my Dad. When I had my first child, Celia was there to help me in those early days of being a young Mom. I loved and appreciated her help. May God bless her children and her entire family and keep them in his loving embrace

“ Gosh Celia... What do I say, where do I start! You, Miss Lady, have been such a big part of my understanding, my existence. I teased for years that my family has eaten good from your recipe box! LOL - I think we all have.

One main ingredient in your spreads was always LOVE! You made me a part of your family many years ago and I LOVE YOU to Life for that! It's funny, I can't go through many parts of this life's path in the last 30 years without mentioning, remembering, or replicating parts of you and your teachings. Your smile and Love, your kindness and support has all been a gift for my soul. Your feisty "fight back" nature taught me years ago to talk it AND walk it, because I seen you do it. Connie Herbert Jalil, My heart goes out to you and your families. I'm sure this will be a very hard and long road to find understand with, but you will, the Universe will guide you through. She cared for so many and from the outside looking in, she gave you (us) all of Her for as long as She could. She, in many many ways, was THE BADDEST... and She new it! a "City girl" to her heart, She did everything BIG. Hair Hats Red lips and she Loved Big. Celia, you will be missed and remembered joyfully.

Rest Easy Pretty Lady, you're with your daughter & Mom again, we all know you lov'in THAT! Kiss Dominik for Me and Hug My Damion super tight one time

“ *My favorite sister, my rock... I'm going to miss our weekly chats about any & everything, over cans of Pepsi & slices of cake. I definitely will miss my Holiday spreads that you made just for me, as well as the many times that I asked you to prepare Dressing so that I could take it to people to prove that it (at least yours wasn't) isn't the same thing as stuffing. No more pain & suffering for you, you can rest easy now. 🙏
❤️, your "little, big brother" Durkee*
