“ What I know about Trustee Charles Tyus, of Mt. Zion Baptist Church. You didn't have to tell him, light bulbs were out. Clocks need a battery. I saw him faithfully take care of what needed to be done. Well done Trustee Tyus. Judy and family, God is your strength and comforter. Keep Trusting in God.

“ To my loving father, even though we had you for 93 years it wasn't long enough for me. A girl's dad is her first relationship with a guy. I felt that my dad could do anything, he was my hero. Everytime we talked or seen each other, I said, I love you and you said same here. A few times you said, I love you too. That meant the world to me. I will miss you dad, but I cherish the memories we shared together. We were blessed to have you for 93 beautiful year. Love from Erica, Allan, and your kids, grandkids and great grandkids.
