“Christine, we went to school together, raised our children together, I was with you when you got married, I was always a phone call away. You always had my back and I always tried to have yours. Everything we went through as our children grew up we could always say that we did the best we could with what we had. My children could always come to you with anything. You were their go to Aunt of reason. I went to conferences with you and the kids, trying to be the voice of reason anytime the school tried to excuse their lack of ability to reach our kids. We worked on your home before and after you purchased it all on your own. You were so very proud and your Mom was too! Whatever life handed you, you handled it. You always helped anyone of your friends. You worked so hard all your life to keep your children in the best of anyone else. All you asked them in return was to stay in school, stay out of trouble and if they wanted it you found a extra shift to work to make sure they had it.

I couldn't have had any closer, better, more loyal friend to get through the years of life with. You now can rest and fly with the angels and we will always know your here with us. Always the brightest star.

Love you always Sis. No more pain and suffering only good times now with our Family and Friends who left before you are now with once again. We will see each other soon.

I've had the pleasure of working with Christine Bradley for the last 16 years. She was always upbeat and fun to work with. She was smart and had a great sense of humor. All of us here at Aunt Mililes lost a great friend and co-worker. She was a blessing to be around my condolences to the family.
