“ I got to know Pops over the last year or so - I loved listening to his stories and hearing him play his instruments. I will miss him playing Happy Birthday on the keyboard for me every year. Grateful he is in a better place and I look forward to hearing him play again some day in Heaven. Condolences to the family.

“ I am going to miss my visits with Pop. He shared a lot of wisdom with me during our conversations and he always encouraged me to; "Have faith in God." I'll miss those times when he would play a tune for me and other times when we would sing together. He never let me leave without praying for him. He might be gone but he will never be forgotten.
