“ My deepest condolences to the family. Mr. Cynthia was my first after school tutor when I was 13. When I was 14 I no longer qualified for her program, she said I now qualify as a volunteer. She let me volunteer and be a tutor to children. Even as volunteer she made sure that my school work done and my grades were where they needed to be. She knew I needed help and when she couldn't offer it to me one way she found a way around it. She helped me learn some hard lessons in life like respect, when to listen, and to never give up. She helped me find my passion for volunteering. She helped me through the roughest time in my life, she will be truly missed. May God grant her serenity and forgiveness.

“ *Ms Cynthia was a kind spirit that believed in encouraging the gifts and talents of young adults. She was loving and firm with my son Victor Carrington for years. She was definitely a second mom to him. Kindness, generosity and brilliance was second nature to her. God always takes the best. Thank you for your unconditional love and words of wisdom. You've earned your wings. You will be missed, We will forever carry you within us. Our deepest sympathy and condolences to your entire family. Juanita Newsome and Victor Carrington Taylor.
