Danyelle Amund Phillips, Sr. passed away unexpectedly on May 28, 2016, at the age of 39. He was born on November 28, 1976 in Kalamazoo, Michigan, the son of Dwight and Emma Phillips. He attended the Israel of God bible study class in Kalamazoo. Danyelle graduated from Kalamazoo Central High School in 1996. He was employed at American Axle in Three Rivers for 3 years. He later went into business with his wife, as owners of Professional Touch Janitorial, LLC, in Kalamazoo.

Danyelle loved his family, especially his children. He also had a great love for children in the community and loved to coach. He was affectionately known as "Coach Danny", and coached the Westside Bulldog's Football Team, along with coaching his sons in Tae Kwon Doe Tournaments. He also had a passion for research and drawing. “Danny” had a special love for his Mamma. He had a fun spirited personality, and was known to be a “big prankster”. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

Danny was preceded in death by his grandparents, William Thurman, James Phillips and Sovie Phillips.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Sarah; 3 sons, Danyelle Jr.; Dairrion and Danvion Phillips; his mother, Emma Phillips; father, Dwight Phillips, Sr. (Lorene); 2 brothers, Dwight Phillips Jr. and Eric Phillips; a sister, Ebony Phillips; grandmother, Magnolia Thurman; and a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends. Also mother-in-law, Sherry (Martell) Siggs; and 2 sisters-in-law, Heather (David) and Amanda.
