“ To the family of Mr. D. Thurmond there is a season for all things a time we laugh, a time we cry, I say to the family that this is the time to come together. Sorry that death had to bring the family together. Look to the Lord from where your help comes from and he will strengthen you in due time. Let us pray! father I come to you and ask that you would touch this family and help them in Jesus name I do pray.
