

Ms. Deborah Ann West

December 26, 1956 - March 15, 2015

Deborah Ann Matthews West was born December 26, 1956 in Bastrop, LA to Annette Matthews and the late Arthur Ford. Deborah received Christ at an early age at the Greater Magnolia Missionary Baptist Church. She received her early education from Morehouse Parish Public schools until the age of 12, when she moved to Kalamazoo, MI with her family. Deborah started her education here in Kalamazoo at Hillside Middle school and later graduated from Kalamazoo Central in 1974. She furthered her education at Kalamazoo Valley Community College and Davenport College.

Deborah has been a hard worker all her life, by taking care of her children and family. She worked many years for Kalamazoo Public Schools, Borgess Hospital, Bronson Hospital, and Hudson's Country Manner until she opened her own daycare called "Kids First".

Deborah had love for everyone that she came into contact with and she left a lasting impression on you. She could light up the room with her smile and wit. Deborah began her battle with cancer in 2007. Although it was an uphill battle, Deborah remained an inspiration and a positive role model for her family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Donald Ray West Sr.; brother Donald Earl Matthews; sister Linda Sue Ford; maternal grandparents Azzetta and Matt Matthews; 4 aunts; Evelyn (Roosevelt) Bradford, Solone Matthews, Neil Matthews and Violet (Malcom) Rigdell; 3 Uncles; Jimmy Earl (Lilly Bell) Matthews, Jessie Smith and Buddy Matthews

She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother Annette Matthews; 3 Children, Chesity West, Donald (Jasmine) West Jr., and Sharnice West; 7 grandchildren, Zhanaria West, Da'Vari Jackson West, Quayvion Lampkins, Miracle West, Donald West III and Javarion Boyd; 1 God-daughter, Lashanda (Terrence) Hubbard; 2 extended children: Khiera and Jemari Matthews; 2 brothers, Rictchen (Mary Joe) Matthews and Rev. Glen (Cynthia) Miller; 7 sisters, Wanda Matthews, Cheri Matthews, Mimi Matthews, Tonya Matthews, Theresa Matthews, Lillian Ford and Martha Ann Ford; 1 loving aunt, Brunetta Smith; mother-in-law, Irma Lee Peters; special friends, Liz Hennings and Charlene Super; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Sending my Love & Condolence to the Mathew family, I remember being with Deborah, spending nights with her, I haven't seen her in a while, I am so sorry for your loss. God wanted another "Angel" Ms. Deborah Ann West standing by His side. Deborah you will be missed. I will always remember the good times we shared together. As we grew older we apart from one another, never the good memories never the good thoughts. You will be truly missed. Praying for your precious children that they follow good in your foot steps. Love Always Mary Dixon.

“ When Chad and I moved to Kalamazoo in 2010 we had no family and were expecting a baby, when my daughter Ni'Ala was about 8 months we found Mrs. West. She did more than take care of my daughter, she became family. Whenever I needed Mrs. West she was there. My mother whom only meet her twice loved Mrs. West and spoke highly of her. I'm so sad to hear that she has past. I can only pray that God looks over your family in this time of need.

“ Our prayers and thoughts are with you during this time of bereavement. I've known Deb for many years. From school, church, casino and etc. She was always so easy to talk to. With her working at Borgess, during the time my husband had his surgery, I could go down to the cafeteria and she would make sure I would get fresh coffee and sit and talk with me. I really appreciated those talks. Then just last year, I lived at the top of the hill from her. I could walk down the hill and not get home for hours, just talking with her. I invited her to church and she came. She never once told me that she was sick. So to hear of her home going has sadden me. Yet I can still say To God Be The Glory because He has already said in John 14 That he will go away and prepare a place for us and that where He is, we would be also. He will come again and receive us to Himself (paraphrased). So I stand on that promise and my prayer that the family can also stand on the promises of our GOD. So it is my hope that the family can find comfort in Jesus, just knowing that she is at rest. With sincere condolences, Sherry L Anderson (Ozier).
