The Scroll Of Life-Remembering Devon

Devon Brianne Usher also known as “Devo” was born October 23, 2009, in Columbus, Ohio to Dominique White and Jordan Usher. Devon entered God’s kingdom on April 24, 2024. She was the first-born grandchild on both sides of the family.

If I could describe Devon with one word, it would be outrageous. She dared to dream big. To know her was to love her. She always tried to bring joy into someone’s life whether it be one of her crazy stories, finding a way to help, or informing you about something she was passionate about. She was very wise and artistic, none the least. If she cared passionately about you, you were her next sketch. Her friends were her sisters. And with those bonds she kindly built her own village, and we all loved each other like a family. To her little brother Cameryn, she was his second mom.

Devon loved animals and had a cat named Cosmo and a dog named Rogi. She also enjoyed performing the moves she had just learned in wrestling on you only to have them backfire on her. I remember her recently obtaining her CPR certification and asked me (mom) if she could attempt to perform CPR on me.

Devon was a freshman at East Kentwood High School located in Grand Rapids, Michigan. She was a member of both the JV girls wrestling team and the JV girls track team. She was planning on attending U of M (Go Blue!) upon graduation. Although Devon didn’t yet have her first job, she enjoyed volunteering at Kids Club through her high school and teaching the younger kids wrestling moves. Although Devon’s life was cut short, she still managed to build lasting relationships with many of her elementary and middle school teachers and friends as well as the new ones she met in high school.

Devon is preceded in death by her Great Uncle Walter Hansard Jr, Great Grandfathers Walter Hansard Sr and Joseph C. White, Uncle Stephon Moore, and her Great Grandmothers Rosie Lee Montgomery and Shelia Kay White.

Devon is survived by her mother, Dominique White; father Jordan Usher; brothers Cameryn White (mom) and Kyri White (dad); sisters Jordyn Usher and Erynn Usher(dad); Grandmothers Cephia White-McIntosh and Stephanie Hansard; Grandfathers Joseph White, Stanley McIntosh, and Charles Usher; Uncles Marcus White, Jarious White, Jedidiah White, Brandon Young and Christopher Moore; and Aunts Shenita Lyons, Rasheda Hansard, Joanna White and Amir Usher; many cousins and special friends Jordan Lusborough, Grace Davis, and Saige McKinney-Brown.

“ Devon everyday I think about the time I spend and help raise you. I will miss you for ever. Every time I look over at your picture I want to cry and ask what more we could have done to keep you here. But God said it time to come home. So take care of your family and know we love  you.

“ I miss you sooo much Devo . You meant sooo much to us, to me. I have so many cherished memories that I will hold near and dear in my heart. You still own a chunk of my heart and you took it with you to Heaven. I pray you are at peace and can rest my love. I wish I could just talk you one last time and tell you the next day would've better than the day before and that I'm strong enough for the the both of us and could carry us through this....but God needed you in His Kingdom when He called you home. Love you forever my little stinker! Ps. Dj was learning karate so you couldn't get him in another wrestling move lol...P.S.S. I'll find that alligator we were looking for last summer! P.S.S.S. I'm going get a part time job to afford all of your fancy foods! Love you forever Devo!
