“ God has welcomed another beautiful Angel into Heaven. Oh my what a beautiful Angel she was. Dora embraced all of us children as her grandchildren..blood or not. She loved and treated us all the same. She never treated anyone she met like a stranger. Dora had a very kind and loving heart. That kind of love is hard to find anymore. There are so many beautiful memories I will always treasure of her. Her smile..her laugh. I remember when were little she would always bring little suckers in her purse to church on Sunday's to keep us quiet while the pastor was speaking. Dora always had a calming effect around her. It was in her voice..her smile..her heart..her soul. She will be missed sooo much. Truly missed. But she left so much beauty and her happy spirit that will never die. Not in my heart it won't. I love you Dora...tears.....I love you.....please smile down on us from Heaven...please drop in and check on us. We know you had to go although we didn't want you to. God needed another beautiful flower to plant in His Garden in Heaven. Tears.....I love you Grandma Dora.....
