“ I didn't believe it was true and could not bring myself to even go to Carrie's page to have it verified. I lost a true friend the day you went home. We go back to kindergarten or first grade...man that was long ago lol I remember I used to complain because I always had to sit next to you in class because of last names. No matter how mean I was to you, you always treated me with kindness, which I loved.

I will never forget your smile & how it could light up a room. I will always remember how we danced at our 20 year reunion and you made me laugh while we were being silly. Oh the good times we shared...how I will never forget them or you.

May His peace be with you until we meet again, my friend.

“ Drummond was a remarkable man. My wife and I knew him for only a short time through the pleasant small talk while checking out at Walgreens. I can't help but think how lucky we were to have had one of God's special angels just around the corner from us on a daily basis. It's amazing how someone can touch your life so deeply through small interactions and is a testimony to how special Drummond was. We shall truly miss him. Our days were brighter because of him.

“ May God bless the family of Mr. Drummond Jordan.

I had the pleasure of working with Drummond (and his cousin, Carl Reed) back in 1996/1997 at APAC Customer Service Center on Sprinkle Road. After seeing him again at a 1998 concert and at least once more after that, I lost touch with him until August 2nd of this year when I just happened to walk into Walgreens.

He was the same Drummond I worked with so many years ago: warm, genuine, so engaging just a good-natured person. He greeted me with a warm smile, asked how my day was going, etc. as he rang up my small purchase. He said something to the effect of how blessed we are to see each day, to make it through any rough day/obstacle. It was as if his objective was to uplift me, a customer, with such soothing, positive words of encouragement before I left that store. Mission accomplished. He really lifted my spirits. Same, sweet Drummond. That is my last memory of him that I keep replaying in my head....

It's amazing how much of an effect such a person can have on you. All those wonderful thoughts friends and family members shared during today's homegoing service prove this fact. Drummond had a way about him that just touched your heart. I have to remind myself that he's not gone; his spirit lives on eternally, both in Heaven and in the hearts of those of us who loved him. "He that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live." Family and friends, please take comfort in this scripture.

God bless you Drummond. ~~

Rest in Peace and as now you will soar on wings of eagles. you were always so positive in school. Quiet but observant. You made me laugh and helped me with math home work which I hated with a passion. You will be missed. May God comfort your family during this time when you leave this realm and enter into your eternal life

“ I want to send my condolence to the family of Drummond. Your entire family are in my prayers and May God continue to give you the peace that surpasses all understanding. God Bless you all and my heart goes out to you. I went to school with him and he was an awesome friend and he will be truly missed. I just saw him a few weeks ago and he hugged me and told me God Bless me and to take care. I know that God is with you and HE will never leave you nor forsake you and He will continue to comfort you in this time of your loss.

“ Drummond would like to talk about our old NorthSide rocket football days, everytime he would mention how we were City Champs in 1981,1982,and 1983 as the NorthSide Raiders. Im sure he is in heaven telling the same stories about us going undefeated and how hard our coach Big Robert Little worked us in practice.Drummond is a champion and will be missed by many. Thanks for the memories! R.I.P.... Prescott Lewis
