The Obituary

Mr. Elvin Profitt affectionately known by his family and friends as “Profitt” or “Bubby” peacefully departed this life for his eternal home on September 5, 2022, at Bronson Methodist Hospital. He was born to the late Clarence Profitt and Hymeria Profitt on April 19, 1940. He was preceded in death by a brother, Lamarr Profitt and a son, Ronald Jackson.

Elvin received his formal education in the Winston-Salem Forsyth County School system. He was employed at RJReynolds Tobacco Company until he relocated to Connecticut for a new employment opportunity with the pipeline. Elvin made his home in Kalamazoo, Michigan for 43 years after retiring due to health concerns.

Profitt was a kind and devoted friend to many. Only his friends knew and appreciated his sense of humor. He enjoyed spending time with loved ones , socializing with friends and watching westerns.

Elvin leaves behind to cherish his memory a devoted friend and brother of 60 years, Franklin McCarroll; daughters, Lakela Jackson, Sonya Jeffries (Tisha and Cameron), and a son, Maurice Profitt (Kelly, Kensington, Camden; significant other, Debra Moore ; special grand daughter, aNyla Harris; Mario Moore, Shanigua Buchanan, TJ Buchanan (Cecilia, Storm, Duke), and host of other friends and family.
