“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Coleman family. I couldn't help but to flashback. We had some good times back in the day on Nichols Road while Ms. Coleman would be working we would be hanging out in her house. So many memories. May the Lord bless you all and keep you during this difficult time.

“ My dear aunt Evelyn

You were caring, energetic, strong and always fun to be with. I admired you for your love of family, friends, and even strangers. You were always a source of good, unbiased advice; always there to comfort and help me. Most of all, you were a wonderful friend.

You taught me, and others in our large and ever growing family, so many things. But your greatest legacy will be exposing so many of us to God!

Aunt Evelyn, know that you will be missed, but never be forgotten and always loved! You left your footprints on my heart!

Your nephew and friend,

Sending heartfelt condolence to the family. My prayers are with you. Evelyn and I sang in the same Music ministry for many years. Weeping endures for a night but JOY will come in the morning.
