

Mrs. Fannie Lee Jamison

July 24, 1939 - October 25, 2013

Mrs. Fannie Lee Jamison went home to be with the Lord on October 25, 2013 at Borgess Medical Center. She was born July 24, 1939 in Prairie Point, MS to the union of Hardin and Eulee Jones who preceded her in death, along with her siblings: Leslie (Man), Sebe, Albert, Charlie C. Jones and Mary Ellen White.

In 1959 she married the love of her life Aaron "Ray" Jamison and to this union three children were born: Debbie, Aaron Jr. and Denise. Fannie accepted Christ at a young age. She was a faithful member of First United Baptist Church. She served as Mission president for many years along with being a Sunday school teacher. Additionally, she regularly attended Wednesday afternoon bible study.

She worked for Shakespeare as a machine operator until closing in 1984. She was a master seamstress at Kalamazoo Sportswear and Regalia until she retired in 2008. Besides sewing, her hobbies included gardening, cooking and she was well known for creating her soup mixture "the healing remedy" and her infamous dressing. She also enjoyed bowling and participated in the TNBA Bowling League for many years.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Aaron Jamison Sr.; children, Debbie of Kalamazoo, MI, Aaron Jr. of Riverside, CA, and Denise (Johnny)

Willhite of Kalamazoo, MI. three sisters, Susie B. Pruitt of Chicago IL, Addie Warren and Laura Mae Jones both of Kalamazoo, MI; brother-in-law, Wayne (Danella) Jamison of Prairie Point, MS and Dola Stewart of St. Louis, MO; three grandsons, Jerome (Kristina), Raymond and Anthony, one granddaughter Marie (Steven) Edwards of Fort Polk, LA and 6 great-grandchildren. Along with two god-daughters, Dolores Johnson and Yolonda Knight of Kalamazoo, MI (and their children, grandchildren) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
