“ I am a nurse who took care of Frank for just a very short time, but in that short time he made a Huge imprint on my heart. He was a beautiful spirit, and will be missed. Thank you to his children for sharing him with us. Tamekka Bennett

“ Hello this is granddads oldest grandson Cliff jr, one of my first memories that came to me is when he tried to instill in us how important it was to take control of your life. One of his many examples was showing us how to have an entrepreneur mentality. He gave us us some rain bonnets to sell to our nieghbors and friends for $1.00, so we can make our own profit. And we did sell them all. Another memory was grandad's Kareem Abdual-Jabaar famous jump hook, he would do for us in his driveway, lol.

“ My Granddad, one word alone just simply would not do..priceless memories, joy, and moments of such insight that only he could give...I would'nt trade for anything in this world.. To be blessed of God to have experienced life with such a wonderful, intelligent, witty and caring grand father is priceless...

“ I would like to take this time to express my sympathy to my cousins Dianne, Clifford, Keith, and their families on the passing of Uncle Frank. Uncle Frank was a son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, uncle, cousin, friend, colleague, and an educator. But, most of all, Uncle Frank was a child of the King, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and he is resting in the arms of Jesus. To God Be the Glory! I love you all today, tomorrow, and always!

Your cousin,

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Brown when he was a substitute teacher with the Battle Creek Public Schools. He was a true gentleman and an example for us all, both teachers and students. He was always positive, smiling, inspirational and professional. His knowledge of and love of history as well as his respect for his students set him apart. He was gentle, yet firm. We young teachers could look to him, even though he was only in our building occasionally, as an example of how to conduct oneself with dignity and self-respect. Even though we seldom saw each other, he always greeted me as a long lost friend and remembered who I was. His was a life well-lived and I am proud to say that I had the good fortune to have met him. He is one of my life's blessings.
