

Mr. Frank Donald Roseman III

January 30, 1946 - October 21, 2011

Mr. Frank D. Roseman III passed away Friday October 21, 2011 at Borgess Medical Center in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Frank was born January 30, 1946, the son of Frank and Vivian Roseman in Detroit, Michigan. He is the oldest son of 7 children. He united in holy matrimony to Lynda, his childhood sweetheart, on August 23, 1969. To this union three children were born. Upon graduating from high school, Frank enlisted into the United States Army and served his country during the Vietnam War, serving 2 tours. Frank and his family were stationed in Kalamazoo, MI in 1984 where he served with the National Guard. Frank retired from the U.S. Army after 22 years of service in 1986. During his many years in the service, he was awarded several rewards of honor. He also obtained his college degree from Kalamazoo Valley Community College in 1988. Frank later became employed with the Portage Police Department from January 6, 1986 to March 23, 2007. Though he retired from the department, he continued to remain in close contact with the many dear friends that he established. They all shared many breakfast times together and shared in the adventures of "Survivor" on a regular basis. Frank was a loving husband, father and grandfather. During his retirement he attended several sports events of his grandchildren and communicated wisdom from his life-long experiences. In 1996, Frank accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior. His faith walk and love for God was demonstrated by his unwavering faith and joyful praise that illuminated in the home. Frank is survived by his wife of 42 years, Lynda; daughter, Sonja; sons, Frank and Keith; his grandchildren, Janelle, Jaila, Joshua, Jerome, Donte', Kylah, Frank V; and Nikela; sisters, Cleon, Rosalind, Vivian, Beatrice and Robin; and several nieces and nephews.
