“ I only had the honor of knowing Mr. Flinoil for a little while, as he roomed with my dad, Arthur Washington, at the end of my dad's life.

They sang beautifully together, bass and baritone, for the residents and staff at Tendercare and became comrades as former Army military and best buds! Mr. Flinoil was a very caring soul who was encouraging to the end.

Thank you, Wayne and family for sharing your dad with me, if only for a little while, he added additional joy to my daily visits...he will be missed.
