“ Im a neighbor of Mr Tarver. I met him over 11 years ago. Everytime he was outside I would run over and give him a big hug we would talk about life general. He was my best friend around here someone I counted on seeing and talking to. I haven't checked on him as well as my aunt and uncle did. He was the most plight sweetest most comforting man I have met in many many years been looking over there and haven't seen him now I know why. I don't know the family but I want to give my condolences. He was the best part of our neighborhood to me and I miss him already. Mr Tarver I miss you and myself my aunt and uncle and my son Michael are going to miss your smile and your presence in this neighborhood. . I enjoyed it our talks and the drinks that we had and I will never forget them. My prayers for the family and friends 🙏 Sincerely Leslie Fuhrman Gazi

“ *I met Jesse when he moved to Kalamazoo with his mother.
In the bottoms on East Butlers Court.
We were ten and eleven years old.
They moved on Fourth St. Walking down the railroad tracks. Passing my family's house on East Walnut St. I looked for him. Because two girls had taken his hat. He wouldn't take it.
Jesse it's winter. You moved here from the south. You need a hat on.
He did not take it.
You have my deepest condolences.*
