“ The strangest thing I have being wonder how could I get in touch with Gregg. My cousin Peggy said he had stop by her house about year ago left his number and she lost it. She had wanted to see him again or at least talk to him. I said that would be nice I would love to see him so I search the web and couldn't find him. Gregg was always friendly and a friend. I really wanted to see him I had no Idea he would be gone. I am sadden that I didn't pursuit it farther. It had been years since I had any contact with any of the Taylor's so I didn't know who to call. I am so distraught over not reaching him before now. May he rest in peace and may the family know he was loved and always thought about.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. My children know him as Mr. Gregg. Mr Gregg a devoted CHRISTIAN, who the term "His Brothers Keeper" is totally what he did daily. Mr. Gregg could solve and repair any problem regarding home maintenance and helped many of us remodel and repair our homes. Mr. Gregg nurtured his children and took required family counseling classes and instruction to enable his children's growth and development. TRULY Gregg we know you're in Heaven with Peace and at Rest with the Lord our God. May God Bless all family, friends and those in fellowship with Gregg Allen Taylor, today and always, in JESUS Mighty name, AMEN

Taylor family you have my prayers and condolences.

It has been many years since I have seen Gregg, but I always remember him as one of my brother Donald's friends when they were very young.
