“ Mr. Winfield was such a nice kind man and he treated me like I was his son! He enjoyed talking about God and his family experiences in this life and had a very sharp mind and nice wit. I will miss him and his kindness! He always made sure I had a program or bulletin whenever I came to church. He invited me over for dinner and was very hospitable. He was hard working and reminded me that he was at church by 6 am!

Respectfully,

J. P. Davis

“ Walking into Mt. Zion on a Sunday morning, we always had an opportunity to see and experience what the joy of the Lord looked like when we saw Bro. Winfield. His gift of hospitality made you feel welcome, whether you were a long-time member or visiting the church for the first time. He leaves a legacy and a witness that will never be forgotten. To Nancy, Wesley, Tammy and the family, we're praying for and with you. Keep looking to the Lord who promised His comfort and strength.
