“ I called her Mrs. Jada. She was always kind a direct with what she needed. I grew to really care for her and welcome her presence. Even though I met her through being a customer at my job. She left an impression on me, and I will forever be grateful that I met her. Rest well Mrs. Jada

“ Jada and I started kindergarten together and only 2 houses separated us, so we played together a lot all thru elementary. I moved and went to Hillside, so we sort of lost track of each other until K. Central, then finding each other at the 40th reunion and renewed our friendship again. Her smile was so infectious. We always had a great time and good talks whenever we went out to dinner. We would talk on the phone for hours - much of the time about our favorite soap opera shows and how our kids were doing. I miss my dear friend and will for the rest of my life.

“ My condolences to the Smith and Williams families. I first met Jada in elementary school when we lived down the street from each other. We were playmates and friends throughout our school years. When we ran into each other after that, it was like no time had passed and we always shared memories and laughs. She will be greatly missed and never forgotten.
