“ I worked with James at Target we would carpool together and some Friday nights we'd test out our luck at the casino. James was a bright light always taking every opportunity to make me laugh with his stories or just being his silly self. We had many fun moments, I will miss him dearly.

“ A Tribute to our Nephew, James Darryl Black - Servant of God well done! Rest from thy labor employed, the master's joy, the pain of death is past; labor and sorrow ceased. Life's long warfare closed 'at last, thy soul is found in peace. We thank the Lord for the privilege of having known this fine and spiritual personality. We thank the Heavenly Father for him, and feel that we should express our sympathy to his family, as well as other relatives and friends. From The Julia Nash and Mary Porter Families. “ Loving Expressions

*“Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD,
And whose trust is the LORD.”
Jeremiah 17:7 NASB*

It is a sobering reminder when we hear of the sudden passing of a love one. Although we often hear the words, “Tomorrow is not promised,” it is a reality we do confront. Darryl’s passing was unsettling, and I am certain emotions ranged from sadness, helplessness, guilt, regret, and more: only if I knew I would have called, sent a card, or visited with him; although thoughtful, take comfort that he is now with the Lord.

At this time let us not be remiss in praying for the family to help them through their sorrow. We take comfort knowing that God will see you through. Our prayer is that the family remember his legacy, cling to the precious memories, cherish his beautiful smile, and strive to meet him again on the other side. We thank God for Darryl and the life that he lived to the glory of God.
