The Life Story of Min. James L. Plair

Honoring a life-well lived we announce the homegoing of a beloved husband, father, brother and Grandfather. Minister James L. Plair passed away peacefully on June 23rd, 2025, at the age of 88. James was born on December 27th, 1936, in Starkville, Mississippi to the late Sarah and Ezell Plair Sr. He attended Henderson High School where he met his high school sweetheart Carnice Sharp. Their union flourished into 69 and a half years of marriage with commitment, love and dedication to one another. From this union they were blessed with six loving children. James was a man of remarkable talents and was known for his kind heart, his infectious smile and his unwavering dedication to Christ. James most cherished role was that he was a devoted husband and loving father.

James had a passion for gospel music, and he was a self-taught guitarist. He started a gospel group named "The Southern Aires" which he was the lead guitarist and lead singer. James also had a passion for cars. He spent hours tinkering in his driveway attending to his cars and would also lend a helping hand to those in need of car service. James dedicated 27 years of his life working as a vehicle inspector at General Motors. Where he was known for his specific skills, positive personality and contributions to the team.

James answered his calling to preach the gospel and after delivering his trial sermon he was ordained and embraced the title of Minister Plair. He became a devoted member of The House of Prayer Church of God In Christ, Kalamazoo, MI, where he served faithfully as a Minister.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Sarah and Ezell Plair Sr. his brothers, Ezell Plair Jr. Artie C. Plair and Freddie Plair. his sisters, Celie May Carpenter, Eddie May Gibson and Ernestine Deloney and his grandson, Orlando M. Plair.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories his wife, Carnice Plair; his children, Craig A. Plair of Houston, TX; Cerita Plair of Kalamazoo, MI; Jeannene Plair-Partridge (Walter) of Detroit, MI; Randy Plair (Crescentia) of Houston, TX; Jimmie Plair (Tonya) of Grand Rapids, MI; and Chasity Plair of Kalamazoo, MI; 2 sisters, Josephine Sudduth of Kalamazoo, MI and Elma Jean Jackson of Jackson, MS; 16 grandchildren; 41 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren; 3 close friends, Gloyd, Corey and James and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

“ Sorry for our late message, we just found out of Bro. Plair's Homegoing Celebration. Sincere condolences to the great Plair Family. My wife & I worked with Rev. Plair Jr. at Brown Company in the 70's. I was a member of his church in Comstock for a couple years & William (Bill) Plair was my best friend before he passed in the (?)70's. We have much love & respect for the great Plair family. REST IN PEACE MY BROTHER.

“ Uncle Jimmie was truly one of a kind. He was kind, gentle and had a tender heart. He always had a smile and had a great sense of humor, and was fun to be around. He also had a good word to share from the Bible, forever finding nuggets that others would miss. Our mother, Eddie Mae, dearly loved Uncle Jimmie and Uncle Jimmie dearly loved our mother and we knew that he loved as well. He told me stories about how much he admired my father when he was a little boy and how kind he was to him as an adult. His love was genuine, consistent and unconditional. We thank God for his life and legacy. We extend our deepest sympathy to our Aunt Connie and all of our cousins. We love you. Sincerely, Mrs. Shirlene (Marvin) Baker and Rev. Michael (Lynda) Gibson and all of Eddie Mae's grandchildren.

“ Sending my heartfelt condolences to mama Carniece Plair and her children! I know that your heart is broken but God had his plans and he will guide you through. I will forever be grateful for the opportunity to be a part of your lives and I am truly blessed to share with you all the love that your dad had to give. May God bless you with all the blessings of love, memories and happiness. I love you all and I am here to help during this transition. Your sister in Christ and friend forever. Beverly
