

Mrs. Jammie M. Stowe

August 19, 1936 - November 13, 2011

Jammie Stowe, more affectionately known as "Tee", went to rest and wait for the return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Sunday November 13, 2011. Jammie was born on August 19 1936 in Midnight, MS to Gertrude and James Hansburg. The younger of two girls, Jammie accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized. She was married to Harry Stowe, who loved and cared for her until the end of her life and to whom we are grateful. Jammie became a member of the Galilee Missionary Baptist Church in 1968 under pastor Mabry Gardner. Jammie joined the Inspirational Choir at Galilee, where she sang songs of glory to the Lord until she was unable to continue. Her voice was filled with the Holy Spirit and brought blessings to many. One of Jammie's favorites was "I Must Tell Jesus". Jammie worked for Upjohn, now Pfizer, from 1972 to 1999 in the production department. Jammie was known for her style, class and fashion sense. She was loved and adored by many who knew her. Jammie is resting peaceably with her mother, Gertrude Stephens; sister, Bessie ("Sua") Hughes; father, James Hansburg; step-father, John ("Brad") Stephens; daughter, Carrie T. Anderson; and nephews, Charles and Fred Hughes. Jammie leaves behind to spread the love of the Lord, her husband, Harry Stowe of Kalamazoo; five sons: Norman (Patty) Bates, Melvin Bates, and Tommie (Laurel) Bates all of Kalamazoo; Henry (Geneva) Bates of Grand Rapids, MI and Leonard White of Westland, MI; two daughters: Gertie Bates and Jacqueline (Roy) Murriel both of Westland, MI; four nieces: Altra (Lionel) Ford, Vona Hughes, Charlotte Bishop all of Kalamazoo; and Harriet Hughes of Ypsilanti, MI; two nephews, Edward and James Hughes of Kalamazoo; grandchildren, Cory, Deandre', Jessie, Jody, Antoinette, Lee, Toyia, Laqueeta, Torel, Creshone, Henry Jr., Chris, Aftin, Aviance, Chimere, Australia, and Giorgio; as well as a whole host of great-grandchildren, great nieces and great nephews who were all very near and very dear to her.

“ No one can ever replace the affection and love of a Mother. To the enire family, my condolences to you ALL! I never knew your Mom personally however, I came in contact with her over the years within our community and she ALWAYS had a beautiful smile on her face ( looking like a model) and kind words. Your mother was a very caring and considerate person and I'm SURE she will rest in Gods arms for all eternity. My prayers and well wishes are with all of you as you try to adjust to not having her HERE, but as Christians, you WILL see her again! From Joycelyn Phillips
