

Mr. Jason Michael Sweet

May 15, 1978 - December 24, 2011

Mr. Jason Michael Sweet passed away suddenly Saturday morning, December 24, 2011. He was born May 15, 1978 in Kalamazoo, MI, the son of the late Richard Sweet Jr. Growing up he learned to hunt and fish with his dad, uncle Jim, and long-time family friend, Roger Piper Jr. Jason made a career of welding and fabricating. He enjoyed spending time at the Allegan Dam fishing. He also hunted at Dumont Lake, where his dad took him in his earlier years. Jason was a child at heart. Spending time with his daughters, nieces and nephews was a big part of his life—not knowing who was the bigger kid. Jason made friends everywhere he went, but the ones who had his back were the true friends—they know who they are. Jason is survived by his mother, Micki James (Larry); three sisters: Kristina Schoudt Smith, her four children, Jessica Sivley (Dan); her two children, Jada, Michael Cook, Angie Baldwin-Cook (Dave); and their four children, David, Kayla, William and Anthony. Life-long Partner, Janelle Archer and their daughter, Justine Ann Sweet. Also, surviving are his former wife, Tara Muha and their daughter, Jacey Renee Sweet; 7 aunts, 5 uncles, several cousins, and two grandmothers, Barbara Sweet and Naoma Brizendine.

NOTE: Friends may meet with the family for a gathering following services at the Eagles of Kalamazoo at 7:00 p.m.

“ Jason I know we didn't get a chance to get to know each other very well, but every time I saw you on Christmas you always talked to me and asked how I was doing. I thought that was cool. You seemed like the type of person I would get along with well ... we both have a wild side to us ... but on the inside we are loving you just have to get to know us better... like our family does. Rest in peace cousin..your with your dad now. We miss you.

“ Jason I am so sorry I cannot make it home tomorrow for your service. I really wish I could be there for you and the family. I will be thinking of all of you tomorrow. Rest in Peace I know you are with your dad and our grandpa watching over all of us. I have many memories with you... all the times we spent playing when we were kids when Micki used to babysit me. To the Galesburg days... lolto me and Tara running into you by chance at Cheek to Cheek lol... and then to you marrying my best friend and having a beautiful little girl with her, Jacey. I didn't get a chance to meet Janelle and Justine but I am sure they are amazing. I pray that your times with your daughters will remain in their hearts forever, and that they will always remember their daddy. You have left us so young and you will be missed. I promise I will watch over Jacey for you and keep the Sweet's in her heart. I love you cousin.
