“ My sincere and heartfelt condolences to Jerome's family. I had the honor of helping to care for Jerome. He was the most selfless person I know. This man would give the shirt off his back and the smile to go with it. He was the Big Brother of the house and always looked out for us. Not one day went by that he didn't help us out or bring something major to our attention. I personally enjoyed chatting with and jamming at the nurses station with him. He loved his tunes. I will miss his infectious laugh and presence. For now my friend, rest well!!!

“ I was saddened to see this. Years and years ago I worked with Woo at the Laurels for therapy...I met him on his first day there and knew him for years while working there. Bosrous laugh, didn't know a stranger. A social man who brought joy to those who knew him. He was the ambassador there. I remember walking with him and jamming to Curtis Mayfield. He wil be missed and is always loved by many

“ Oh man....WO I was so upset to hear this...just seen you Monday told you when I came back out I was going to bring you another spicy chicken sandwich,you got the biggest smile on your face! That was supposed to happen today.Sad that we never got a chance to play checkers...you would have remained the champ anyway!LOL Jeff as well as Many others are going to miss you.I will really miss hearing you laugh could hear all around the building you were always a happy man, place wont be the same.You rest easy my friend you will ALWAYS be remembered.Peace be with you and you family. Always.....Pat and Jeff Dyer (from the Laurels)

“ Jerome my Friend. Loved him. Met him 5 years ago at the Laurels. I was scared after my stroke. He came to my room and showed a stranger kindness and warmth. He was able to get me out with other patients. Taught me how to play dominoes. Showed me Friendship. Over the next few years we played games together all the times. Dominoes mostly but also spades, chess, and checkers. He became like a brother. I will miss him forever. My condolences to his family his LOVE for you all had no end. He will be missed. I still expect to hear that laugh. To Jerome I love you like a brother.

“ For someone who couldn't say a whole lot he sure spoke volumes!! I had the privilege of meeting him through my place of work. He made such an impact on me with his loud booming laugh and infectious smile. He was always happiest when he could get lost in the music. I put a file on my phone just for him and would play it whenever he needed to go to an appointment or sometimes when he just wanted to sit outside. He was such a bright spot for so many people. He will always be missed!! RIP woo.
