OBITUARY

Pastor Jerry Wilkerson was one of ten siblings. He was born on October 20, 1956, in Kalamazoo, Michigan, to Sister Hattie Ann Phillips-Wilkerson and Deacon Bennie Will Wilkerson, Sr. Pastor Wilkerson accepted Christ at an early age while attending Mt. Zion Baptist Church, where he was actively involved as a youth. Throughout the years, Pastor Wilkerson faithfully served Mt. Zion Baptist Church in many capacities, including usher, Sunday School teacher, Vacation Bible School teacher, and in his earlier years, as a coach and basketball player. As everyone knew, his favorite ministry was singing. His mother would often remind him, "Jerry, you can sing anything, but make sure you sing for Christ." Pastor Wilkerson was blessed to attend Assemblies of God and Christian Life Center (now Stones Church) that helped form his Christian journey.

Following graduation from Loy Norrix High School in 1974, he worked for Jewel Food Service, traveling to and from Chicago as a member of its management team. Pastor Wilkerson began a career with The Upjohn Company and later Corium International.

His anointed voice and love of music led him to form a gospel music group, Zion, along with several close friends. With the support of a music executive, the group recorded, produced, and released the self-titled recording in 1993. The album was well received, and the group performed throughout the Midwest at gospel concerts, churches, and special community events. The album also featured Pastor Wilkerson in a duet titled "What Kind of Love" with renowned recording artist Vickie Winans.

Under the leadership of Dr. Addis Moore, Pastor Wilkerson was called to the ministry, licensed in 2007, and ordained in March of 2011. That same year, he was called to serve as Pastor of Friendship Baptist Church of Kalamazoo, where he made a significant impact on the lives of the church family. Pastor Wilkerson served Friendship Baptist Church faithfully until he was called home to be with his Lord and Savior. He transitioned into his heavenly body and picked up his robe in glory on December 31, 2025.

From a previous marriage, he was blessed with a son, Jevon Jeremy Wilkerson of Kalamazoo, Michigan; a daughter, Jonvea Casandra Wilkerson-Johnson of Arlington, Texas; one granddaughter, Jayla Johnson; and two grandsons, Jordon and Aiden Johnson, all of Arlington, Texas.

Preceding him in death were his parents and his brother, Elder Bennie Will Wilkerson, Jr.

Pastor Wilkerson leaves to celebrate his life his beloved wife of twenty-three years, Gloria Ollie Wilkerson; two bonus sons, JeRon Johnson and Jaquay Ollie Johnson of Kalamazoo, Michigan; two sisters, Lee (Evert) Mitchell of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Deloris Wilkerson of Maricopa, Arizona; and six brothers: Andrew (Dawn) Wilkerson and Robert "R.J." (Anita) Wilkerson of Kalamazoo, Michigan; John Wilkerson of Independence, Missouri; Arthur (Ronda) Wilkerson of Phoenix, Arizona; Bruce (Linda) Wilkerson of Atlanta, Georgia; and Victor Wilkerson of Stone Mountain, Georgia. His life continues to be honored by his mother-in-law, Mary Ollie of Kalamazoo, Michigan; sisters-in-law Audrey Lipsey-Wilkerson, Cynthia (Robert) McKinley of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Melva Pettway of Thomasville, North Carolina; brothers-in-law - Darryl Ollie, Anthony (Cheryl) Ollie, Leonard McElrath, Billy Joe (Hazel) McElrath of Kalamazoo, Michigan; Michael McElrath of Three Rivers, Michigan; Marvin (Nina) Ollie of DeSoto, Texas; and Lonnie (Mary) Ollie of Horn Lake, Mississippi; two very special goddaughters, Ka'Miyah and Kha'Leaha Whitfield; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

He will be deeply missed by his best friends and brothers, Loyal Zachery, Minister Kelvin Moore, Luther Hamilton, and Reverend Ron Franklin, as well as the entire Friendship Baptist Church family.

“ When my mom (Jerry's aunt) was approaching the end of her life many years ago, Jerry would come to the hospital and spend time in the cafeteria with me and my dad. Jerry would have us laughing sharing hilarious family stories. A couple of weeks later at the funeral home, Jerry and his wife Gloria, made a point of sitting right next to me. They could have sat next to many family members, but Jerry being the older cousin was looking out for his younger cousin.

There's an old saying, "People may not remember what you say, but they remember how you made them feel." I don't ever remember seeing Jerry when he wasn't smiling and I saw him a lot when I was coming up because our families were very close. Even though the years have spread our families across the country, the bond between us is unbreakable, even now.

Rest well cousin. Your life made a big difference.

“ Although weather did not allow us to attend the services for our dear cousin Jerry, we send our condolences to family, friends and to those to whom he was an under-shepherd.

"But at that time every one of {God's} people whose name is written in the book will be rescued.. those whose bodies lie dead and buried will rise up... Those who are wise will shine as bright as the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever.".(Daniel 12:1,2,3 NLT)

“ Jerry, I have so many wonderful memories of us all growing up together at Mount Zion Baptist Church singing in the Youth Choir and Majestic Choir. You were a great childhood and adult friend. You Jack Franklin, Bradley Gardner, Kevin Dunigan all had great fun along with all of the incredible choir members that we all grew up together with.

Your voice and laughter was contagious. Thank for honoring Kevin as he had me to always stand between you guys to stay on note when we were signing. I will never forget you my friend, and may you rest in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I will always remember you, and your entire family. Love Bubba (Aubrey Avery Jr.)

“ Our sincere prayful condolences to all of Jerry's family. We sang in the Majestic choir together as youth and did a duet. After my part was over and Jerry began, the REAL singing started. Jerry was always a leader amongst us peers and fulfilled his destiny of loving God, leading people to God through singing and teaching, and loving his family and friends. Jerry will be surely missed. My father Renaford Owrens Sr asked about him in the fall and said he was concerned with the church at Park and Patterson. He wanted to talk to Pastor Jerry. Every time Jerry saw him he showered Dad with love. Eternal rest and peace brother and friend. 🙏 Your legacy will continue.
