

Mr. Jewell Snell

September 27, 1949 - May 5, 2013

Mr. Jewell Snell, lovingly known as “Pops”, went home to be with the Lord, Sunday, May 5, 2013 in Kalamazoo, MI. He was born September 27, 1949 the son of the late Wiggin and Mandy Snell in Marvell, Arkansas. He moved to Kalamazoo, Michigan with his family in 1962. He graduated from Kalamazoo Central High School. He was employed with a painting company in Kalamazoo for many years. Jewell was known as having a quiet, gentle spirit about him. He was a favorite uncle among his nieces and nephews, but all of his family and friends enjoyed spending time with him. He was a very helpful and dependable man who anyone could call on to help them with lawn maintenance, etc. and he would always show up on time with a smile on his face. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

He was preceded in death by: his parents, Wiggin and Mandy Snell; 2 brothers, William H. Snell and Jerwill Snell; a sister, Cora Cotton, and a daughter, Victoria Snell; 3 brother-in-laws: William Thurman, Alfred Paige and Willie Paige.

Jewell leaves to cherish his memories: 3 daughters, Cassandra Dancer of Atlanta, GA, Tabitha Jackson and Clennett Wittig; siblings: 5 sisters, Magnolia Thurman, Labora Paige, Willie Mae Paige, Eddie B. Sanders, and Alma Clark; 5 brothers: Wiggin (Hilda) Snell, Leroy (Alice) Snell, Leon (Annette) Snell, Jessie (Berna) Snell and Allen Snell; 5 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren; sister-in-laws, Clara Snell, Lu Carrie Snell and Alma Lee-Snell; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Also, a very special friend, Ola Carver.

“ Jewell Snell.....he was the nicest man I have ever met. When I was about 17 yrs old he let me ride is bike....the black ten speed that he loved and cherished he cleaned and worked on that bike as if it were a car.....he let me ride it on night and it got stolen.....I was sooo scared to tell him. I finally told him what happened and he gave me a hug and told me it was alright he can buy a knew one. I felt so bad but he said it was just a bike.....Jewell had a good heart he cared about people his family Jewell had know enemys. I seen him cutting grass a couple weeks ago he stopped gave me that smile a waved back at me. He will be truly missed but he is in a better place now RIP Jewell Snell!!
