

Mr. Joseph Averon Campbell

May 4, 1959 - September 15, 2017

Joseph Averon Campbell was born May 4, 1959 in Jamestown, New York to Maylene and Joseph Campbell. As a small child, Joseph relocated to Kalamazoo, Michigan where he attended school and later graduated from Loy Norrix High School.

After a long battle with cancer, Averon retired his gloves and on September 15, 2017 he departed this life to begin his new journey. In his days of good health, Averon loved fishing, cooking, and spending time with family and friends...

He was preceded in death by his two sisters, Shari Shegog and Janis Campbell; and both his paternal and maternal grandparents.

He leaves to carry on his legacy and cherish his memory: a son Kareen Thomas of Kalamazoo, MI; a daughter, Tasha Jolley of Murfreesboro, TN; two granddaughters, Kartaysha and Khari Thomas; one great granddaughter, KamyI all of Kalamazoo, Michigan; his loving and devoted parents, Maylene and Joseph Campbell; his sister, Versi (Charles) Hines and brother Darryl Campbell all of Kalamazoo; His great aunt Lois Avery of Detroit, MI; two nieces, Chy'lon Hines of Georgia, and Erika Campbell of Kalamazoo; two nephews, Calvin Campbell and Joseph Hines both of Kalamazoo and a godson, Eddie Boyd Jr; Also, a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and good friends.

His loving spirit and smooth punch lines will truly be missed.

“ Averon and I go back 40 plus years he's the brother I never had and my family! I will never forget seeing him ride up on a bike saying he was there to watch me. To funny because he was really there to protect me. I will always love you Averon and you will forever be in my heart. My sincere condolences to Kareem and the Campbell Family. I love you all and I'm here for you. Love Beverly Boyd
