Joshua Paul Knobloch, lovingly known as “Gizmo Jhay,” of Kalamazoo, Michigan, passed away on April 7, 2026, at the age of 34. He was born on October 1, 1991. Joshua was a devoted husband, father, son, and brother whose love for his family and friends knew no limits.

Joshua was the proud owner of InFamousInk13, where he expressed his passion for tattooing. He had a gift not only for art, but for connecting with people. He often tattooed others without asking for anything in return, simply because he loved making people feel seen, valued, and happy.

He will be remembered as a kind, loving, and compassionate man who would give the shirt off his back to help someone in need—even if it meant going without himself. Joshua always went above and beyond for the people he loved, and his generosity and big heart touched countless lives.

He is survived by his wife, Michella Triebold; his four daughters; his father, Paul Knobloch; his step-mother, Tammy Knobloch and his siblings: Aiden, Pj, Haley, and Kira Knobloch.

He was predeceased by his mother, Amy LaRue, his uncle, James Knobloch, his aunt, Karen Knobloch, and his grandfather, Lawrence Knobloch. His passing is a profound loss to his family, and they will miss him deeply.

Joshua's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
