“ Dear Mom, I'm so sad that you had to leave us. But I'm glad your not in pain anymore. You will be with me every single day helping me through everything, and I am so grateful for that. Your with Ty Ty now and I'm so excited for you about that. You were, are and will always and forever be the greatest mom and best friend ever. You were always there to cheer me up and make me laugh and let me know that everything would be okay and I'm going to miss that so much mom. The funniest memory I have of us is you and I which was 8 months pregnant for Hailie at the time, by ourselves over in Minnesota before your surgery, we were having such a rough time with everything but all we could do was laugh about everything that was going wrong, laughing so hard we had tears rolling down our faces. LOL. I wish I could give you a hug and kiss and tell you everything will be okay, but I guess I did do that the weekend before you had to leave us, and I am so happy and grateful that I got to be there with you mom taking care of you holding you telling you how much I love you and holding your hand until your last breath. I love you mommy and we'll be together again when the time is right.
R.I.P. Mom I love you

Julie so sad that you are gone. I read of your passing and it was such a shock. You and I were friends for so long in the 80's and 90's and then with time we lost touch. I had always figured at some point in our lives we would again cross paths but not by reading of you passing. Rest in peace my dear friend. Kate

“ Our sweet sweet Julie. You don't know how much you will be missed. You were such a good person. You brought so much happiness to this world. Never judging a single soul. Your patience was that of Job. I have such fond memories of you and know that Heaven has another angel. I loved you so much and count the days until we meet again. You will ALWAYS be in my heart!!! You are FOREVER loved....
