“ I did not know Kalissa very well, however I have known her husband since I was a young girl. Chris always had a lot of questions about his belief in God. He was open to there being a God, but he didn't really know what he believed. When he met Kalissa, I began to see a HUGE difference in Chris. He became a better person, a more faithful person, a person who I could see loved God and wanted to serve Him. I believe that Kalissa's influence brought about this big change in Chris. That is a testament to me as to what kind of person she was. Without knowing her well I know that she was a genuinely happy person, full of love and faith. I know that she inspired one of my best friends to change, to accept God and strive to serve Him, something I couldn't do in the 15 or so years I have known him. I could see through her constant positive attitude through her fight that she was more faithful and more graceful than I had been through my health struggles. I can see through the smile on her daughter's face that she was a loving, caring and attentive mother who loved her daughter in a way that built up her self confidence and happiness. Kalissa was someone that will be missed by many people and remembered with nothing but good memories. She is blessed to be able to have been able to leave such a testimony behind through her life.

“ I met kalissa in college. she was the best roommate to have and we use to just sit up and talk for hours about anything. She would do anything for you if she could. I remember she was scared to tell me that she was pregant for kaylee because i was a good girl and went to church and everything and maybe i would look down on her but i never did. I was there for her. I remember her laugh and the way she would like up a room. Im sorry we did not stay in touch like we should have. She will be missed i know. rest in peace kalissa one day we will see ya each other again.

“ *Kalissa,
You will be greatly missed. Seeing you and Chris together, I knew you were made for each other, the looks in both your eyes was such love. I will pray for your family to give them strength to go through this loss, especially your daughter. It was fun working with you, especially seeing your smiles everyday. Have fun in paradise my friend and live through your daughter!!*

“ Kalissa and I didn't start off on the greatest of terms but in the last 2 years we had let all the nonsense go and became great friends. We were able to bond over our children and laugh about how we became friends. I cannot believe she is gone. i know she will truly shine on through her daughter Kaylee. I am so sorry it took us so long to become friends but I know you will always shine down on us. RIP Kalissa. Gone too soon

“ Every time Kalissa and I were together, we laughed, talked and shared many things about whats going on in our lives. I will miss our conversations, I know that Kalissa knew that I loved her with every thing in me because the last time I seen her, she could see it and I could see that she loved me too. I will miss my friend, every time I think about her the tears start coming. We use to laugh so hard that we would be sweating and hot. She taught me how to play phase 10 and now I can't help but to think who am I going to play it with now. Kalissa I love you and know that I will always be here for Kaylee, I can't take your place as her mother and I don't want to but I will be here for her like a God-Mother is supposed to be. We will see each other again.
