“ Jean and Dave were neighbors when my family lived on Marlow. They were the best. Arie even babysat for us. I actually remember Jean teaching me to cook some things as she was an extraordinary cook and showed love through food. Please know I am thinking of you.

“ The best cook there is for sure. I met the Johnson family when they joined CLC when the Church as on Portage St. and we became quick friends. I along with several church members were always getting invited over to share a delicious meal that she prepared. African collard greens, fried chicken, macaroni and cheese cornbread fried corn, and her pound cake. You name it Jean put her foot in it. Jean published a cookbook with her many delicious recipes and sent me a signed copy. When David got transferred to Tennessee I drove down to spend a week with them and we talked on the phone at least once a week. We both loved Dancing With the Stars and would talk while watching because both Loved Max. Jean knew how to make a house a home, and her and David's love for each other was always evident. Jean was David's Darling and he was her David. Jean I was your friend and will remember all of our good times together. ❤️

“ Mrs. Johnson was a wonder lady. I remember visiting their home often in the early 1980's. I was always struck by the warmth that I experienced whenever I visited and I attributed that feeling to Mrs. Johnson and her wonderful family. My condolences and prayers to my dear friend, Arie and her father, Mr. Johnson.--Greg Moorehead, Chicago
