“ My deepest sympathy to the Scott Family. It is hard to think of Linda and not think about her Mom, she truly had her kind, sweet, gentle, caring & kind spirit! Linda was also very passionate about her work as well as her education. And nobody made a sweet potato casserole like Linda, besides Fran her mom.

“ I grew up calling you Aunt Linda. Although we weren't related by blood, you always treated me and my siblings as your nieces and nephew and I still feel that way today. You were always so kind to us. I was always impressed how you pushed forward and pursued your dreams and obtained your Doctorate degree. The world has become a better place with your kindness and other contributions. You will truly be missed. I will always love you auntie! Rest well, until we all meet again. ❤️

“ Here's Dr. Linda Scott at an MNRS meeting, surrounded by her cheerleaders and fan club, Sandy Spoelstra, Kari Wade, Karen Burritt and Melodee Vandebosch. We were all thrilled for her when she was appointed into her Deanship. I knew a Linda and admired her as a nurse and person for decades. My last memory of her was at a aFAAN induction ceremony, had the pleasure of telling her how proud I was of her and that her faculty were so very admiring of her as a Dean. She will truly be missed by man.

Was a classmate of mine. She had such a wonderful heart ❤️ and always kind. I haven't seen her in over 10 years but seeing her at our 50th class reunion was like she never left. “ Linda was the guiding force behind so many people, always believing you could do more than you thought you could. She advocated for everyone she met, nurses, students, patients, and friends. I will miss knowing she was just a phone call away.

“ Our friendship began in the 1990's, as neighbors and colleagues. Linda became a trusted friend and mentor offering extraordinary support through the ups and downs of life and my long slog through graduate school. This was Linda at her very best - always there providing just what was needed at just the right time. She was the best-of-the best, while making me feel that I was, too. I will miss her - always.
