

Mrs. Lois Ann Foulks

September 17, 1936 - November 25, 2018

****NOTE: Funeral Service Times & Location Listed Below

Mrs. Lois Ann Foulks passed away early Tuesday morning, November 27, 2018 at the age of 82. She was born September 17, 1936 in Okolona-Chickasaw, Mississippi, to the parents of Ben and Addlean Murray, whom are both deceased. Louis Foulks attended Fannie Carter High School in Okolona, MS

Louis lived a full and lively life. She enjoyed fishing, traveling, shopping, and conversations. She also enjoyed spending time with her family and her chosen friends. Her mother was her best friends, and although she passed in 1995, she continued to be very independent (for example, traveling by Metro Bus). She was motivational and spiritual joy to be around. Lois will be deeply missed, especially by her granddaughter, Tiffany Mosley and her two children, Ricky Humphrey Jr. and Eyonna Dunigan, who have never spent a day away from their grandmother Lois, until now.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ben and Addlean Murray; husband, Bonny Lee Foulks; two sisters, Rose Murray and Ice Lean Murray; daughter Norma Foulks, son Charles Foulks and grandson, Terry Foulks.

Lois leaves behind to cherish and remember her loving and caring life: a daughter, Barbara Mosley; two sons, Richard Foulks and Bruce Foulks all of Kalamazoo; a sister Bernice Murray from East Saint Louis and brother James Murray from Okolona, Mississippi. Her memories will be carried on through her grandchildren: Antwon, Tomika, Charles Jr. Niecy, Jeremy, Kymi, and Kyanna. Also a host of nieces and nephews: Jeffery, Maurice (a.k.a. Dagio), Kayla, Tanya, Ricky, Raymond (a.k.a. June Baby) and Patricia Murray along with 13 great grandchildren; 9 grandnieces and nephews as well as her cousins who loved her: The Jones, Lipsey's Turner's and White/McKenzie's.
