“ I can remember Lola B. as a fun-up beat woman. She was always laughing and smiling, and her and my mom Yvonne would sit and talk for hours about everything and nothing. She loved her mom, her son's and their wives and all of her grand children. They were her joy. She will be miss dearly and I am sorry for this lost. But I have some peace in knowing that there is rest beyond the river. And I thank God for the time I was blessed to know this beautiful woman.

Love,
