“ The Hewitt Family considered Mr & Mrs Tucker like family. I've known the Tucker's all of my life growing up right across the street from their home. Mrs. Lorine Tucker was such a loving, caring, beautiful and respected woman in the community. Mrs. Tucker will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to James Maude, Charles & Leroy.

With Love,

Deborah Hewitt

“ *Mother Tucker was one of my favorites, growing as a member of Galilee. I will always remember her as she affectionately referred to me as "Marjean".
On behalf of my family, my brother Michael, my sister Elizabeth, I send my prayers, love, and condolences.
Rest in Eternal Peace, my dear.*

“ Mother Tucker was one of my favorites, growing up while attending Galilee. I will always cherish those memories, as she lovingly referred to me as "Marjean". On behalf of my family, including my brother Michael, my sister Elizabeth, I sincerely send my prayers, love, and condolences.

Rest In Eternal Peace, my dear.

Love,

"Marjean"💕

“ Mrs Tucker, started doing my hair in her home. She moved into the building on N. Westnedege and later in the house next to it. Some times she would leave me under the hair dyer, to go check on her parents. Husband and Sister in law. She loved her family. I admired for taking care of them. She did my hair until she know longer was able.
