“ Marshall you will never be forgotten. We have so many wonderful memories of the years when you and Annie and Mary lived in SC. How blessed we are that God was so gracious to put us all together on the same path for a time. The memories abound. The cruises we all went on, the endless Sunday brunches after church on Sundays, all the get-togethers and all the dinners, and all the many hugs....too much to list. And how blessed we are to have gotten to know Shannan and Malinda. We will always miss those wonderful times....the togetherness, the friendships, the laughter. We certainly had our fill of laughs. And yes....the tears...the end of a beautiful season when you moved away from SC. How we missed you! But God is good! Change is inevitable. And we will all be together again one day.

With all our heartfelt love, June & Dave LeRow

“ Heartfelt condolences to family and many friends...I always called him Poplar Bear Security, because all he had to do was look at someone with unsavory thoughts and they would walk away without looking back...If you knew him, he was a loving person and I know for myself he loved his family.
