The Obituary

Melinda Clopton departed this life on November 19, 2024 at home in Parchment, Michigan. Melinda was born November 12, 1955 to Calvin Clopton Jr. and Elease (James) Clopton in Egypt, Mississippi. She retired from Textile Systems, Incorporated in 2016 after many years of service.

Melinda loved to cook and bake, read her Bible and romance novels, and watch her favorite television shows. She was also a talented seamstress before her health began to fail.

Melinda believed in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We rejoice that she is resting with Him and no longer has any pain.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Calvin Clopton Jr. and Eleise Clopton, and her sister, Delma Clopton.

She leaves to cherish fond memories of her: three children, Shenell (Curtis) Laster, Heather Williams, and Christopher Clopton; nine grandchildren, Dakwan and Shayla Scruggs, Amarion, Briashia, Brian, Kashlyn, Dante' Williams, Kennedy York, and Supreme Clark; three great-grandchildren, Avah and Avahi McClain, Yaki Williams and one on the way. She is also survived by her siblings, Ordell (Anna) Clopton, Shirley (Tim) Stratton, Charles (Gwen) Clopton, Michael Clopton and Cleveland Clopton. Also, a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Melinda will be greatly missed, and her memory will live in our hearts forever.
