

Ms. Michelle Marie Vincent

February 2, 1963 - November 6, 2019

NOTE: Visitation and Funeral Service Times & Location Listed Below

Michelle Marie Vincent passed away unexpectedly Wednesday November 6, 2019 in her home. Michelle was born February 2, 1963 to Magnolia Vincent and the late Robert Boyd. She attended Kalamazoo Public Schools and later went on to receive her certification and become a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA), in which she was employed for over 30 years. Michelle extended her educational skills in nursing to others including family members by using her gifts as a caregiver.

At an early age Michelle was an usher and choir member at the Church of God Pentecostal. She later transitioned her membership to Vision of Victory Church of God under the direction of Bishop Wallace.

Michelle was known as a loving and caring person. In fact, she was counted on to be the family's babysitter. Michelle was a very adventurous woman who loved to travel. She was a true fisherwoman and always made sure to pack the bologna, bread and cheese.

Michelle spent time in Tulsa, OK and Westchester, MA until she was called home to help care for Mother Essie Mae Vincent, her beloved grandmother.

Michelle was preceded in death by her father, Robert Boyd; Grandfather John Vincent Sr; Grandmother Mother Essie Mae Vincent; Uncles Bishop John Vincent Jr., Deacon James Vincent, Nathaniel Vincent Sr. and Ken Foreman; and her cousin Camilla Worsham.

Michelle leaves to cherish her memory and carry on her legacy her mother Magnolia (Willie) Crockett; Sister Angela (Randy) Ford; Nephews Byron (Raven) Dickenson, Randy Ford, D'Anthony Ford; Great-nieces Brielle Dickenson, Kaliyah Ford; Uncles Jimmy Vincent; Aunts Julia Vincent, Clara Vincent, Theresa Foreman and Paster Barbara Vincent; Cousins, Pastor Terry (Wanda) Vincent, Pastor Keith (Nicola) Vincent, Anthony (Marvella) Vincent, Eureka Vincent, Andre (Tinessa) Patteron, John Patrick, Joe Vincent, Jimmica Vincent, Shamesha (Jeffery) Brown, Tasha Washington, Mark Vincent, Tiffany Donald and Prentice Vincent; Special Friends Ant, Michelle Lee and Mary Jo and a host of relatives and friends.

Dear Magnolia. I'm so sorry for the loss of your daughter. I hope you remember me. My name is Trudy Newkirk. We were neighbors on Lincoln Ave here in Kalamazoo. The memories i have of your family are fond. You were such great people!!! Your mother even named your sister Clara after my mother!!! I would love to connect with you.!!! Hope you all are well!!!! Again, my condolences.

“ Michelle was one of my childhood friends, she was always very nice and easy to get along with. I loved going to church with her, Theresa and Mother Vincent, they would give us ice cream cones after service. We would play on Highland street, while Mr. Vincent would always watch over us. I send my love and condolences to the Vincent family, may Yah keep you in perfect peace during this time.
