“ I will miss you more than anything dad. These last months have been hard between us, but I wish that your life had not been cut short. I wish we got to take those trips we talked about. I wish you got to see me become a mom and walk down that aisle. More importantly, I wish that you wouldve been able to experience joy in your final days and less pain. I love you so much. I dont know how I will get through this.
