THE OBITUARY

Miguel LaJuan Craven was born September 20, 2003 the child of Natasha and Tyrone Harris in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Miguel was an outstanding student in the Kalamazoo Public School District. He attended Lincoln Elementary School and later went on to attend Linden Grove Middle School. Miguel loved sports and in his 7th grade year, joined the wrestling team. In his 8th grade year, Miguel joined the bowling league where he came in 3rd place which was one of his great accomplishments. In June of 2020, Miguel bought his first car, a 2006 Pontiac GXP, by himself. He was very proud of all of his accomplishments. After graduating middle school, Miguel attended Kalamazoo Central High School, where he was currently a Junior. He enjoyed high school but wasn't a fan of online schooling.

Miguel loved to work and make his own money. He had 3 different jobs where he worked which included: Corn Detasseling, a Cashier at a florist and he also worked for the Y.O.U. Program. His dream was to become a millionaire by the time he was 25. Miguel enjoyed listening to music every day. He will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him.

He is preceded in death by one sister, Tyreana Harris; his grandparents, Billy Woods and Linda Corbin; and his aunt, Cora Corbin.

Miguel leaves to cherish his memories: his loving parents, Tyrone and Natasha Harris; 4 brothers, Davion Craven, Dajon Craven, Manuel Haywood, and Royal Haywood all of Kalamazoo, MI; 3 sisters Tyriel Harris of Kalamazoo; Alea Fisher of Buchanan, MI and Mani Motton of Kalamazoo; his grandmother, Doris Woods and a host of other relatives and friends.
