The Obituary

Mossy Dixison, age 93, passed away peacefully at her home in Kalamazoo, MI, surrounded by her family and loved ones on Wednesday, November 4th, 2020. She was born on June 8, 1927 in Gloster, Mississippi to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Robinson (Viola). Mossy was the second youngest of five children: three brothers, S.L. Robinson, Casalee "aka Bibo" Sims, Robert Jr. Sims and one sister, Mildred Robinson.

Mossy gave her life to Christ at an early age. She moved to Michigan in the early 1950's. She joined Galilee Missionary Baptist Church where she became a faithful member, serving in the choir for many years.

Mossy worked many jobs including the Health Center and as a nanny/cook for

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen (president of Upjohn). She was also employed at Glassmaster's as a Machine Operator, until she retired.

Mossy met John Dixison in 1963 and they united in marriage in 1969. They were married for over fifty years and shared many great memories together. Mossy enjoyed traveling as well as spending time with family and friends. Her special interests/hobbies included raising her family, attending church, cooking, attending baseball games, going to the fair and dancing. She spent her last years, keeping up with her close friends and watching her favorite soap operas. She was known for her delicious pound cakes and coconut cakes. She loved playing cards and would make her own rules, we called "Mossy's Rules" aka "cheating".

Mossy is preceded in death by her husband, John Dixison; parents, Morris and Viola Robinson; brothers, S.L. Robinson, Casalee Sims, and Robert Jr. Sims; sons-in-law, Frank Bell, Jackie Vines Sr., Thurmon Glenn Jr. and Herbert Coleman; nephew, Bobby Mason and special friend, Pearline Poplar-McCoy.

She is survived by her daughters, Sandra Bell of Jackson, Mississippi; Marlis Coleman of Flint, MI; Delores Vines (close friend Raymond Pearson) of Kalamazoo, MI; and Robin Glenn of Farmington Hills, MI; special daughter, Coretta Dixison, special nephew, Kevin Toy of New Orleans, LA and special son/grandson, Floyd Russell Jr. (significant other Erica Russell); grandchildren, Tonia Chapman, James Dixon, Shari Vines (fiancé Julius Young), Danielle Glenn and Corey (Anna) Vines; special grandchildren: Germaine Burnett, Jackie Vines and Keisha (Merlin) Zachary and a host of great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. Mossy also leaves to cherish her memories, her dear friends: Fannie Shephard, Betty Frazier and Joyce Bonner.

“ Grandma,
You were the light of the family and you'll be truly missed. Some of my fondest memories are the laughs and talks we would have about what was happening on one of your favorite soap operas, The Young and the Restless. Being the great cook that you were, I'll miss the love you had for cooking all of the different kinds of Camila beans especially the red beans. The love you gave to the family throughout your life was truly a blessing from God. I love you Grandma and will miss you dearly. Memories of you will be eternal.

Your Granddaughter,
Tonia
