“ I know that you will miss Cousin Evelyn but God has her in the palm of His hand and she is eternally resting with the Lord. It is so good to see a Saint live a long life and bear much fruit. I remember Cousin Evelyn as a warm person who showed loved to everyone she came in contact with. I was a blessing to have met her.##imported-begin##Shirley Anederson Thompson##imported-end##

“ Aunt Evelyn was a great woman who loved her family and always welcomed us into her home everytime we came from Little Rock to visit her. Her journey here on this earth has come to an end, but her journey with the heavenly Father has just begun. We will miss Aunt Evelyn. She is probably rejoicing in Heaven as she meet up with her husband, Uncle Henry and my mom and dad s well as all the other relatives who have gone on befoe her. May God continue his blessings upon this family.##imported-begin##Emma Anderson McCoy##imported-end##

“ I know that Aunt Evelyn will be missed by many but especially by my grandma. I dont remember meeting Aunt Evelyn but I remember hearing my grandma speak highly of her and always checking on her even though they lived miles apart. We can find comfort in knowing that she is at peace with the Lord.##imported-begin##Emmie Hatch-Cofield##imported-end##

“ It was an inspiration to see the long and loving relationship shared by Aunt Evelyn and my mother. Our family has been blessed by the many years Aunt Evelyn welcomed us into her home. We will all miss her but we rejoice knowing that God has welcomed her into his home now.

“ I will always treasure the memories of visiting my Aunt in Michigan. Racing down the open roads by her farm. Enjoying the fresh air and sunshine, and the loving embrace ad smile of my beloved aunt as she caught me when I reached her doorstep. I thank God for the joy she brought to my life, and my family.
