

Mr. Charles W. Burton, Sr.

February 1, 1929 - May 24, 2010

Mr. Charles William Burton was born on February 1, 1929 to Anna Mitchell and John Louis Burton in Marrian, IN. Charles, who is of Native American decent, moved to Galesburg, MI with his parents and seven siblings. This is where he spent his formative years and developed his love of hunting, fishing and building which would later become his passion and life's work. As a young man, Charles fought for his country in World War II in the United States Navy. Upon returning from the War, he met and married his soul mate, Marjorie Goins. He and his wife of 41 years moved to Kalamazoo, MI, where during this time they lovingly raised two children: Charles and Heather. He was the proprietor of Burton's Builders and MC Builder's. A consummate "Man's Man", Charles was known for his quick wit and fiesty charm. He never met a stranger and his giving heart allowed him to mentor and volunteer in his community. Charles, affectionately known as "Papa", could always be found holding court by telling one of his stories, but he was the happiest when surrounded by his family and was also there to provide unconditional love. Charles was preceded in death by his wife, Marjorie; parents, Anna and John; two brothers, John and Giles Burton; one sister, Louise Burton. He leaves to mourn: Wanda Burton and Sara Pharr; two brothers, Richard and Allison Burton; two children, Charles and Heather (Sherman); four grandchildren, Seth Troxler; Naomi Burton, Charles and Nathaniel Burton, and Hunter Tischler; one great-grandchild, Miley Fernandez; and a host of family and friends.The Burton Family thanks everyone for all of your prayers, condolences and heartfelt gifts. Please continue to hold us in prayer as we will continue for you*
